Understanding our product codes

Oceans Floral's product codes consist of two parts, a six digit product code followed by a four digit colour code (and in a few instances a letter added to the product code or colour code to signify that the product is new, on special or that the colour has a particular finish). In our catalogue we list the product code first and then the colour code. If there are multiple colours available for the product then the colours will be listed below under "Colours Available". When searching for a product on our website, use the six digit product code and once you find it, if there are multiple colours you can click on the colour swatches to select the colours you require. When placing your order by phone or email we require the six digit product code followed by the four digit colour code.
